

The Art of Business

Business Membership at the Rollins Museum of Art

Business Membership at the Rollins Museum of Art provides your company with the unique opportunity to inspire existing clients and engage the community while promoting your brand.

With an array of options to market your company to the public, corporate membership at RMA provides the opportunity to give your clients VIP treatment.

Partnering with us lets you pick the level that suits your goals from basic market exposure, hosting a private event in either the museum or our lush lakeside terrace, to the sponsorship of a groundbreaking new exhibition or free admission.

Your tax deductible commitment provides vital support for the museum's mission to enrich our community and lets you join a group of influential leaders who are making an immediate impact! Thank you for your consideration.
